Warm Weather Policy

Policy statement

At Earith PreSchool 7 we believe that children's welfare is paramount and that consideration should be given to be weather conditions, so as not expose the children to sun/heat stroke or sunburn.

Procedures

It is the policy of Earith Pre-School 7 that in hot weather children will not be allowed to participate in outside play if:

- They are not wearing a hat.
- If sun screen has not be applied or sun screen has not been supplied by the parent/carer.

Earith Pre-School will:

- As the weather improves remind parents of the need for sun hats and sunscreen through letters home or via newsletters.
- Have available spare hats.
- For children who attend all day, we will apply sunscreen provided by parent/carer at lunchtime (if permission given).
